Formpark Quadrato

Formpark Rombico

The herringbone laying pattern is experiencing a big revival. Classic and elegant, it gives a room the ambiance of a city villa. In addition to herringbone, Formpark Quadrato and Formpark Rombico can be laid in many other patterns.

The spaciousness of individual planks reinterprets the classic laying pattern in an exciting way. The patterns impress with their simplicity and timelessness, at the same time being a statement of individuality.
